

MAGMA

glazed porcelain tile 20"x20"

Made In Turkey

ANTHRACITE

GREY

IVORY

Inspired by volcanic ash, the Magma Collection represents molten rock material that originates under the Earth's crust and the rock when it has cooled. The grey matter left behind is the color the designer was looking to exhibit when creating this porcelain tile.

Great for interior and exterior applications. Can be used for floors, walls, counter-tops and many other surfaces.

Impervious porcelain is resistant to stains, scratches, chemicals, extreme temperatures and UV exposure.

Available in: 20"x20"
